2 CFR 200.318	Organizational Conflicts Organizational conflicts of interest may exist when due to the district's relationship with a subsidiary, affiliated or parent organization that is a candidate for award of a contract in connection with federally funded activities, the district may be unable or appear to be unable to be impartial in conducting a procurement action involving a related organization. In the event of a potential organizational conflict, the potential conflict shall be reviewed by the Superintendent or designee to determine whether it is likely that the district would be unable or appear to be unable to be impartial in making the award. If such a likelihood exists, this shall not disqualify the related organization; however, the following measures shall be applied: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. The organizational relationship shall be disclosed as part of any notices to potential contractors;2. Any district employees or officials directly involved in the activities of the related organization are excluded from the selection and award process;3. A competitive bid, quote or other basis of valuation is considered; and4. The Board has determined that contracting with the related organization is in the best interests of the program involved. Reporting Any perceived conflict of interest that is detected or suspected by any employee or third party shall be reported to the Superintendent. If the Superintendent is the subject of the perceived conflict of interest, the employee or third party shall report the incident to the Board President. Any perceived conflict of interest of a Board member that is detected or suspected by any employee or third party shall be reported to the Board President. If the Board President is the subject of the perceived conflict of interest, the employee or third party shall report the incident to the Superintendent, who shall report the incident to the solicitor. No reprisals or retaliation shall occur as a result of good faith reports of conflicts of interest.
